

NASSIRI LAW GROUP

YOU NEED AN ATTORNEY WHO GETS RESULTS:

CRIMINAL DEFENSE RESULTS:

People v. Barraza (2011) in Harbor Justice Center, County of Orange. The Defendant was charged with violating Penal Code section 273.5 (a), otherwise known as Domestic Battery With Corporal Injury, due to a fight that took place with his spouse. After thorough investigation by Randy Collins and his private investigator, Mr. Collins was able to demonstrate that the Defendant acted in self-defense. The case was subsequently dismissed.

People v. Whalen (2010) in Alhambra Superior Court, County of Los Angeles. The Defendant was charged with Penal Code 243.4(e)(1), otherwise known as Sexual Battery, as well as Penal Code 242/243 (a), Simple Battery, for an incident that took place at a night club. The Defendant had a good job that he couldn't afford to lose if he was convicted of those charges. Attorney Randy Collins convinced the District Attorney to drop the charges and the case was dismissed.

People v. Sawyer (2011) in Harbor Justice Center, County of Orange. The Defendant was arrested for Felony Domestic Violence Battery against her husband. The bail bond was $50,000. The Domestic Violence Battery was witnessed by several individuals who provided statements to the Newport Beach Police detectives. Attorney Randy Collins argued that the Defendant suffered from a nervous breakdown, which culminated in involuntary acts of frustration. The case was dismissed.

DUI RESULTS:

People v. Tudor (2011) in Central Justice Center, County of Orange. The Defendant was charged with a Felony DUI in violation of Vehicle Code 23152 (a) and (b) for driving under the influence of alcohol with a BAC of .08% or higher with three prior DUI's. The Defendant had failed to appear on his original court date and there was a warrant issued for his arrest. The Defendant was now facing up to 3 years in prison for the Felony DUI. Attorneys Randy Collins and Ron MacGregor argued that Defendant's Due Process rights had been violated and brought a Motion to Dismiss the case. The Motion to Dismiss was granted and the Defendant was released from jail and his case was dismissed.

People v. Henderson (2010) in West Justice Center, County of Orange. The Defendant was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol in violation of Vehicle Code sections 23152 (a) and 23152 (b), and Driving on a Suspended License. This Defendant had previously been convicted of two prior DUI cases within the past 10 years. [mandatory jail time of 120 days is required for a 3rd time DUI and there is also mandatory jail time provided for driving an automobile on a suspended license due to a prior DUI]. Resolution: Randy Collins and Ron MacGregor negotiated a deal whereby the Defendant would attend a 6-month live-in drug/alcohol rehabilitation program and a 6-month outpatient program to avoid jail time. The Defendant was allowed to attend a rehabilitation program in Hawaii.

People v. Neff (2010) in North Justice Center, County of Orange. The Defendant was charged with a 3rd time DUI as a misdemeanor in addition to 3 separate Felony DUI cases in violation of Vehicle Code sections 23152 (a) and (b). Attorney Randy Collins negotiated a disposition with the District Attorney wherein the Defendant would serve only one year actual time in custody.

714-937-2020
www.NassiriLawGroup.com